

May 2023 Newsletter

In March, the winter weather would not give us a break. At Amicus PVI & RLE, we did not let that get us down! The outdoors gave us plenty of activities to partake in.

Here are some of our last moments of winter! Dodging pigeons Downtown & making snowmen at program.

Enjoying the outdoors with practicing our basketball skills!

In April, the sun finally decided to make its debut. We took advantage of the beautiful weather by practicing Outdoor Rec!

 Bar Harbor, ME

To celebrate our last swim at Husson before break, the lifeguards and some members from the swim team came down to party with us!

Celebrating our last swim at Husson University before spring vacation!

Volunteering making ribbons for the upcoming S.O.!

The Track and Field S.O. competition is in just a few weeks. Mark your calendars for Wednesday, May 17th! The competition takes place at Hampden Academy from 9 am to 2:30 pm. Wish our athletes good luck 🍀

Visiting the greenhouses at the University of Maine!
