

Amicus March Newsletter 2022

Individuals from Amicus Bouchea Center for Learning's (BCL) class 9 are pitching in with Amicus Pathways to Employment to volunteer for the Bangor Area Homeless Shelter by making delicious desserts to add to the meals that are prepared and delivered there weekly.

Amicus Community Life and Pathways to Employment Announcements

The Arts group will be going to Portland on March 22nd-March 23rd, to spend the night and visit the Portland Art Museum and the Cryptozoology Museum.

Summer opportunities will be coming out at the end of April. Program participants may sign up for special activities and/or trips they would like to take part in.

We request that CLP program participants please let our office know, as soon as possible, if you are going on a pre-planned trip or vacation this summer, so we may plan our staffing accordingly.

Individuals from Amicus PVI and RLE enjoyed the snow and outdoor activities.
